GRAND LODGE OF VIRGINIA.

Independent Order of Odd-Fellows to ### Meet. GRAND SIRE SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE.

He Will Be Present and Make a Public Address-Arrangements for the Session Tuesday.

Odd-Fellowship had its advent shortly after the birth of the Nineteenth century, in the city of Baltimore. Since that time such has been the worthy, enduring tenets of the order that now every civilized clime recognizes and appreciates Odd Fellowship as the exemplification of those nobler traits emanating alone from a band of true brothers, and this week one band will meet in Richmond.

meet in Richmond.

It will be an important and representative gathering—the Grand Lodge of Independent Odd-Fellows of Virginia.

This body meets in its fifty-fourth annual session next Tuesday, at 10 o'clock, at Lee Camp Hall. It has not met in this city for several years, and the lodges of this city have been busy for some time past making proper arrangements for the entertainment.

The last meeting was held at Roanoke April 15 and 16, 1890.

The last meeting was held at Roanoke April 15 and 16, 1890.

At that time the number of ledges was 63, with a total membership of about 4,000.

Since that time several new ledges have been instituted. Past Grand Master Spitzer, Past Grands Thomas N Kendler, C. I. Hewitt and others instituted one this week at Mineral City, which will be represented at the Grand Ledge.

The Richmond ledges are: Richmond, Jefferson, Union, Unity, Aurora, Schiller, Friendship, Fitzhugh and Roane.

Those of Manchester are. Henderson and Stuart. Full delegations have been elected from all of these ledges to the Grand Ledge.

There are now about 4,500 Odd-Fellows in Virginia and about 800 in Richmond and vicinity.

There DAYS SESSION.

JOINT DEBATE.

Hope of Reward and the Fear of Punish-

A joint debate will take place next Saturday night between the Philologian Society of day night between the Philologian Society of Richmond College and the Randolph Literary Society of the Young Men's Christian Association. The debate will be held in the lower hall of the Association, and the public are invited independent of invitation cards. This will be the third debate between the two societies, and as each one of them have been successful once, a great deal of interest is centered in the contest.

The address of welcome will be made by Mr. G. R. London, president of the Randolph Society, and the debate will be on the following question: "Resolved, That the hope of reward is a greater meetitive to action than pal church.

The body was clad in the Lee Camp uniform, with the badge presented to him while commandant of the Camp, and the badge of the Army of Northern Virginia.

The active pall-bearers met at General Cooke's late residence at 4:30 o'clock, while the military by that time marched up to Broad street to escort Lee Camp. Promptly on time the procession started to the residence of the late General, and followed the remains from there to Grace church, where the funeral services were held in accordance with the ritual of the Episcopal Church. The military cortege was formed by the First Regiment, the Richmond Light Infantry Blues, the Stuart Horse Guards, and the Howitzers.

The Rev. Mr. Mason, who officiated at Grace church, also read the prayers at the grave in Hollywood.

At the close of the services the artillery gred the usual salute.

MR. SMITH'S SON KILLED. He was Trod Upon by a Mule and Run Over by a Wagon.

An accident, which resulted in the death of of the little son of Mr. Benjamin J. Smith, who lives at No. 906 north Twenty-fifth street, happened yesterday evening near his home.

Two heavy drays were passing when the little fellow, with several of his companions, climbed on the rear of the front wagon.

The other wagon was about ten feet behind and when the little boy jumped down he was struck by one of the mules hitched to the other wagon. ther wagon.

The mule trod on his body and two wheels assed over him. His skull was fractured and four of his ribs broken.

Dr. Hinchman was summoned, but the little fellow died in a few minutes.
The driver did not stop at all, and late last last night it had not been learned whose wagon it was that caused the death.
An inquest will be held over the body this afternoon.

Governor McKinney. Governor McKinney yesterday pardoned Richard Morris, sentenced in the Norfolk

police court in December 1800 to six months in jail for petit larceny.

The pardon was recommended in this case by Judge D. Tucker Brooke and others, on account of a service rendered a police officer by Morris.

by Morris.

The petition explains that on April 4th last, as officer J. H. Carter, of the Norfolk force, was conducting Patsy Hodges from the court to jail, the latter upon reaching the prison door made a terrible and unexpected onshaught on that official.

He was about to do the latter serious bodily injury, when Richard Morris hurried to the officer's rescue, and by his timely action saved Carter from a great deal of trouble.

"The prisoner, by Morris's assistance, was safely juiled." The latter has served over four of his six months' sentence.

LEE DISTRICT CLUB.

Several Addresses Made by Prominent Speak ers Last Evening. Lee District Democratic Club held their usua neeting at Shoemaker's precinct yesterday evening, when the name of Mr. W. H. Beveridge was drouped from the roll.

Addresses were made by Messra S. B. Ginn,

As soon as fifty names have been obtained application will be made to the Governor for permission to form the company.

Teeth Without Plate-New Patent.

On the 11th of February last year Dr. Throckmorton secured a patent for artificial teeth—without a plate and removable teeth.

The only place in the city where they can be had is Dr. F. Davison's, 629 east Main street, and a perfect fit is guaranted in every case.

No trouble whatever is experienced in wear-ag them, and they are regarded as quite an inprovement upon the old style teeth. The price of them is very noderate.

Mind Still Clouded.

Mr. George Tenser, the young man who came so near suffocating in the boiler at the City Hall last Wednesdaynight, is improving but his mind is by no means clear, and he is still unable to give an intelligible account of the accident that befell himself and James Bolton, the latter losing his life on that occasion. sion.
